

ETUC CONFERENCE

WOW 5 DECEMBER 11:00→13:00

ENERGY EFFICIENCY: REDUCING ENERGY CONSUMPTION THROUGH WORKER ENGAGEMENT

EUROPEAN TRADE UNION CONFEDERATION (ETUC)

ETUC CONFERENCE

ENERGY EFFICIENCY: REDUCING ENERGY CONSUMPTION THROUGH WORKER ENGAGEMENT

WITH TRANSLATION EN-DE (tbc)

11:00 Introduction Judith Kirton-Darling (ETUC Confederal Secretary)

GOOD PRACTICES

11:10 In the building sector The experience of the German alliance for work and environment, Werner Schneider (DGB)

11:25 In the industry The UK experience in energy intensive industries, Philip Pearson (TUC)

11:40 National inter-professional social dialogue The Belgian case, Luc Voets (FGTB-ABVV) for the Belgian Trade Unions

11:55 Discussion

PANEL DEBATE

12:15 How can policy/institutions support and disseminate best practices?

Moderator Judith Kirton-Darling

Speakers

- International Labour Organization, Peter Poschen
- European Parliament, Kriton Arsenis, S&D member
- Sustainable Development Observatory (EESC), H.Wilms

12:50 Conclusions Judith Kirton-Darling

WoW - How to get there ?

The World of Work (WoW) pavilion will be organised within the Civil Society 'C17' space, in the University of KwaZulu Natal, Howard College Campus, King George Avenue, Berea, Durban. Public transportation will be provided from the UNFCCC. Our activities will be held in Room MTB L2, unless indicated otherwise.

For more information, please contact apanneels@etuc.org and visit our web site www.etuc.org/a/9329