INVITATION

Project: Workers Participation: A key to fair digitalisation
3rd Cluster Seminar, Madrid
15/02/2018 – 08:30 to 17:00
CCOO Escuela Sindical Confederal (Trade Union School of CCOO)
Calle de Longares 6, 28022 Madrid

Dear colleagues,

We warmly invite you to participate in our third cluster seminar in Madrid, Spain on the 15.02.2017. To register for the cluster seminar in Madrid please follow this link and fill in the required information: Registration Link

Registration deadline is the 23.01.2018

In this third cluster seminar, during the morning session we will get insight of the digitalisation development in Spain and other countries of the cluster. Of course, there will be also the opportunity for the participants to express their knowledge, ideas and demands. In the afternoon, we will get further Input on the transnational impact of digital technology and workers' rights. Jeremias Prassl (Oxford Magdalen College, Oxford) will present three options for the social partners in the gig economy, followed by Eckhard Voss (WMP Consult) presenting results from the online survey and telephone interviews. More details please see the draft agenda.

Interpretation will be provided in English, Spanish, French + other language.

This cluster seminar is open to participants from Spain, Finland, Belgium, Greece, Cyprus, Slovakia, Bulgaria. Therefore, we will reserve 14 seats for participants from these countries. Of course, trade union colleagues from other countries are also invited to participate. As the content of the four different cluster seminars will change it might be also possible and interesting to participate in more than one cluster seminar during the project.

The maximum of participants for this seminar is limited to 25. Therefore, please wait after your registration with the booking of your travel and accommodation, till you get the confirmation for your participation. The costs for travel and accommodation will be reimbursed after the event, regarding to the ETUC reimbursement rules (see attached "Accommodation and travel policy").
